

Residential Treatment Expansion Consortium

ADMISSION CRITERIA FOR LOW INTENSITY RESIDENTIAL LEVEL 3.1

Patient Name: _____ Admit Date: _____
Current Facility: _____ Phone #: _____
Case Manager: _____ Fax #: _____

_____ Dimension II: Biomedical Conditions:

- _____ (a) The resident's biomedical problems are stable and resident is able to self-administer any medications.

_____ Dimension III: Emotional/Behavioral Conditions:

- _____ (a) The resident's psychiatric condition is stable and he/she is able to follow through with appointments and self-administer medications.

_____ Dimension IV: Readiness to Change

- _____ (a) The resident acknowledges his/her substance use problem and is sufficiently ready to change and cooperate with outpatient-based treatment services.

- _____ (b) The resident requires 24 hour structured support as evidenced by:

_____ Dimension V: Relapse Potential/Continued Use Potential

- _____ (a) The resident has few coping skills with which to address triggers and needs 24 hour structure to help him/her acquire and apply the skills.

_____ (b) The resident is a high risk of relapse and is unaware of the severity of his/her problems and triggers.

_____ (c) The resident exhibited deteriorating functioning during non-residential outpatient treatment as evidenced by:

_____ Dimension VI: Recovery Environment

_____ (a) The resident has few if any non-using social supports.

_____ (b) The resident's current environment is unsafe as evidenced by:

_____ (c) The resident requires a 24 hour structured setting in which to gain the skills for independent living and working a recovery program as evidenced by:
